About the Council for Green Revolution

Council for Green Revolution (CGR)

Founded on Earth Day, April 22, 2010, the Council for Green Revolution (CGR) is a prominent environmental organization dedicated to ecosystem protection and sustainability in Telangana and Andhra Pradesh. CGR has spearheaded impactful initiatives, including the plantation of 3.4 million saplings in partnership with over 4,000 schools, engaging 1.1 million participants. CGR's notable contributions include the publication of the "Eastern Ghats Environment Outlook" in 2019 and hosting the Conference of People on Climate Change for four consecutive years in the context of the UNFCCC COP. The organization also fosters environmental leadership in children through its School Earth Clubs. To further amplify its mission, CGR established the Earth Centers Alliance, a network of 30 colleges and universities promoting sustainable leadership among youth. The organization also operates The Earth Center, a dedicated training and research facility near Hyderabad, advancing its vision for a greener future.
