I think I could turn and live like animals, they're so placid and self contained.
I stand and look at them long and long
They do not sweat and whine about their condition;
They do not lie awake in the dark and weep for their sins
They do not make me sick discussing their duty to God;
Not one is dissatisfied, not one is demented with the mania of owning things;
Not one kneels to another, nor to his kind that lived thousands of year ago;
Not one is respected or unhappy over the whole earth
